Join us on a wonderful weekend tour to see the show-stopping spring gardens of Keukenhof, and the quintessentially Dutch cities of Amsterdam, Haarlem and Delft

This flight-based tour is ideal for individuals and small groups of friends looking to travel with like-minded people. We believe in making your life as easy as possible, so we can arrange for you to fly to Schiphol from a range of regional airports and will organise all transport once you arrive in the Netherlands.

What will you love on this tour ...

Keukenhof's annual spring festival is one of the world's most spectacular floral events. Seven million flowering bulbs turn the garden into a heady celebration of tulips, anemones, daffodils, freesias and hyacinths - themed, for 2019, around the idea of 'Flower Power'. There is also a spectacular sculpture garden where visitors will find displays created by the world's leading floriculturists, as well as exhibition zones such as the Beatrix Pavilion with its stunning collection of orchids and the Orange Nassau Pavilion where florists give daily demonstrations.

The Frans Hals Museum in Haarlem Hals, the principal portraitist of the Dutch Golden Age, lived and worked in Haarlem and the eponymous museum holds the largest collection of his work in the world. Set in the heart of the region's bulb growing area, Haarlem is also a city of flowers and, for Spring 2019, pioneering floral artist Paul Wijkmeijer will be creating spectacular arrangements in some of the museum's historic vases. Cleverly placed among the paintings, this unique flower exhibition is not to be missed.

As well as visiting Delft, for a guided tour of The Royal Delft Potteries, and Amsterdam for an atmospheric cruise along these famous waterways, taking in all the must-see sights. Flights are with KLM and are included in the tour price. An ECT Tour Manager will accompany you too!
